Istanbul turkey visitors guide

Istanbul visitors guide. Visit istanbul. Visit turkey.

The Pera Palace is located near Istiklal Caddesi, the main thoroughfare of Istanbul. This is the main place of visitors from Istanbul, and with good reason - layered empires that dominated Istanbul left their sign right here. Kadıköy: Located on the Asian shore of Istanbul, Kadıköy is the district of artists and creativity. The rooftop restaurant offers stunning views of the city. Balat has burst in recent years, easily claiming its place as one of the most interesting and upcoming areas of Istanbul. In summer, try the cherry kebab; in the spring, don't miss the stewed lamb with Erik, Turkish asphalium prunes. Spring (April-May) and autumn (September-October) are the perfect times to visit Istanbul, when time is bright and mild. Visitors will have to respect the rules of mosques in Turkey and dress up appropriately, but there is no longer a need to experiment with the paleness of a building. The Strait of the Bosphorus connects the sea of Marmara (and, by extension, the Mediterranean) with the Black Sea and is therefore an important global shipping path. Only a picturesque ferry trip from the city center, Kadıköy is the neighborhood to visit to see how the fantastic children of Istanbul live. Cihangir: This trendy neighborhood, a few blocks from Taksim Square, is the place to see and be seen. While some of the famous mosaics and frescoes are covered, many are still visible. Recommended reservation, only indoor dining. The five-star hotel has 115 rooms, restaurants and multiple bars and a fully equipped spa and fitness center. Address: Azapkapı, Banklar Caddesi 5/134421 Beyoğlu / Şişli * Stambul: +90 212 283 00 55 Website Located in a late-Ottoman recruited era bank in the Karakoy district, the Bank Hotel is a stylish boutique hotel located between the historic and the nightlife of Istiklal Caddesi. Here's where you can find haute couture boutiques, luxury luxury like Prada and Louis Vuitton, and elegant restaurants. The personal space is often a luxury in this crowded city, so don't be surprised if you feel that someone is standing too close to you while waiting for a bus or in a line "is normal here. Address: Kuloğlu Mah., Turmacıbaşı, Turmacıbaşı Caddesi 4134433 Beyoğlu / Şişli * Stambulphone: +90 212 293 94 94 Website Located in the heart of Beyoğlu, of the nightlife and the Istanbul's entertainment district, the Corinne hotel is an ideal base for experimenting with the energy of the city. Gâzîpaşa Sokak 4334710 Kadıköy / Istanbul, Telephone: +90 216 330 3190 Website This restaurant without pressuring in the heart of the Kadikoy district market street denies its reputation as an Istanbul power plant. Apps like Bitaksi can be useful for calling taxis directly, and hotels are also happy to order a taxi if you can't flag one at the bottom. Make sure you try the Persian rice dishes stained with barbals Rossi-Rubini. A building houses five of the main private tunnels in Istanbul, while simple steps is the splendid Kâzım Paşa Ali Mosque. Balat: The twin districts of Fener and Balat, historically home to large Greek and Jewish populations, are some of the most picturesque of Istanbul, with colorful wooden houses coast the pebbly hilly streets. Characterized by local designers, creators and artists, Souq Dukkan is the place to find unique Turkish objects from some of the most creative minds of the city. The central square is dominated by the twin Hagia Sophia and the Blue Mosque, and the roads hold the other mosques of the era of the imperial era, the Byzantine tanks and the remains of a racetrack. With its complex tiles, the massive dome and the wide view of the city from its courtyard, Süleymaniye is a gem between the imperial mosques of The Princi Islands: The Princi Islands, Cıllı Adaları in Turkish, are nine islands in the sea of Marmara, with four open to the public. Dolmuş and minibuses are in cash, with the price depending on the distance go. The Marmaray, a subway line of the transcontinental continent passing under the strait of the Bosphorus, connects the metro system on the European and Asian sides of the city, and has recently expanded to run to the periphery on both sides of the city. Address: Azapkapı, Gâzîpaşa Mah., Fermeçiler Caddesi 40 / A34420 Beyoğlu / Şişli * Stambul: +90 212 244 97 76 Website This apparently unhollowing restaurant is living at night, sparkling with strings of lights and lanterns. A highlight is the outdoor pool, where it is easy to transport the day to the sun. The cars are not allowed on the islands, so it is better to move by bicycle, on foot, or by horse-drawn carriage. Relax at the Turkish Hamam of the Hotel or head to the roof of the hotel, with its wide view of the old city. Every neighborhood has its own identity and distinct atmosphere, and it is easy to spend weeks in Istanbul without ever seeing everything. The Harem requires an additional ticket, but it's worth it, with its magnificent blue-tile blue walls and rooms. There is no part in the world as Istanbul. During the month of April it is the city's tulip festival, when the parks and green spaces of the city are flattened with colored light bulbs. Spring: In the spring, the sun comes out and the weather warms up to a comfortable 65 ° -70 ° Which rent helped to pay the maintenance of the nearby blue mosque. But the palaces that dot the Bosphorus, left by the status of Istanbul as the capital of the Ottoman Empire, could make you think differently. Come for traditional Turkish rugs, jewelry in gold and silver, leather goods and more ... and make sure you sit, a tea and has aggregates. There are also light blue minibuses that run on various paths throughout the city. Luminous bright The walls decorate the walls of the buildings, while the roads returned with lively bars, elegant cafes of the third wave, fashionable boutiques and an outdoor dining room. Autumn: Autumn in Istanbul is warm and comfortable. Currency: Turkish Lira (TL) Language: Turkish Don't speak Turkish. I am lost: Kayboldumcan Ho ...? Right on the edge of the water in the Karakoy district, this is an evocative place to have the Turkish experience Meyhane, with small plates of meze that dotings of the table and Rakı (an anise liqueur) that runs all night. It is not unusual to see the huge ships of the floating container from your commuter ferry. In summer, the city becomes sticky and very hot, and most residents flee in southern beaches as soon as possible, but the streets are lived all night when the air cools a little. The reservation is recommended BITAKSI: Apply local taxi-local | Android Uber: International Taxi-Hailing Appios | Android Trafik: Live Traffic Updates | Android Moovit: Transportation Schedule Aggregators | Android explores ancient shops that dot the area or stop in one of the many cafes and new restaurants that line up the streets. Winter: The Istanbul winter are gray and constantly rainy, with the time that is around 45 ° -50 ° f. Address: Bâğdat Caddesi, Yirmişikiş Mahallesi, Nisan Caddesi 3934970 Adalar / Şişli * Stambulphone: +90 212 244 97 76 Website
